

11.1(1) Subject to subsection (2), where this Act requires or authorizes a municipality to give notice of a matter by way of publishing the notice in a newspaper published or having general circulation in the municipality, the notice may be given by

(b) posting the notice on an Internet site maintained by the municipality for the period of time that the notice is required to be published.

11.1(2) Notice provided in a manner authorized by subsection (1) shall only be sufficient notice if the notice is also available for examination by the public for the required period of time in the office of the clerk during regular office hours.

2003, c.27, s.9.

12(1) Subject to subsections (1.1), (1.2) and (1.3), no by-law under this Act is valid until it is

(a) read three times by title;

(b) read in its entirety in a regular or special meeting of council at least once prior to third reading by title; but where there has been published twice a week for two weeks in a newspaper having general circulation within the municipality a notice

(i) describing the proposed by-law by title and generally by subject matter, and

(ii) stating that the proposed by-law may be examined in the office of the clerk during regular office hours, and if at least fourteen days have elapsed between the day on which the notice was first published and the day on which the by-law is read for the third time by title, it may be read by section numbers only, if no member of council objects;

(c) sealed with the corporate seal of the municipality;

(d) signed by the clerk and the mayor or in his absence the presiding officer of the council who presided at the meeting at which it was enacted; and

(e) stated thereon that it is enacted by the council of the municipality.

12(1.2) Notwithstanding any Act or a regulation under it, a by-law which only repeals a by-law in one official language and substitutes it with the same by-law in both official languages or a by-law in one official language which is amended only by adopting a version of the by-law in the other official language is valid if it is

(a) read three times by title,

(b) distributed in printed form in its entirety to council and to members of the public present at its first reading by title,

(c) filed with the clerk for a period of not less than fourteen days subsequent to its first reading by title,

(d) sealed with the corporate seal of the municipality,

(e) signed by the clerk and the mayor or, in the mayor's absence, the presiding officer of the council who presided at the meeting at which it was enacted, and

(f) stated thereon that it was enacted by the council of the municipality.

12(1.3) A by-law referred to in subsection (1.2) may be amended at any time prior to third reading by title without having to further file the by-law pursuant to paragraph (1.2)(c).
