

FIREWOOD

The public can contribute significantly in helping prevent the spread of Emerald Ash Borer, and other invasive pests. The beetle does not fly far on its own. Infestations result from the movement of infested ash trees and ash wood products.

The best way to avoid unintentionally transporting the Emerald Ash Borer is by keeping campfirewood in its intended location – burn it where you buy it – and by only purchasing firewood that has been certified, treated, and labeled.

