

VULNERABLE PERSONS REGISTRY

The Vulnerable Person Registry is a registration system which allows citizens to record vital information pertaining to vulnerable family members or other persons in their care. This information will be used to assist police and other emergency services personnel, in the event of an incident involving the registered person.

A Vulnerable Person is defined as any person having mental acuity deficiencies wherein the person cannot appreciate their surroundings and recognize the inherent dangers of environmental circumstances they find themselves in.

The information provided is strictly confidential and will be used by emergency personnel only.

To Register:

- Registration forms are available from the Fredericton Police Force main office at 311 Queen Street (parking available at side of building).
- On-line at www.frederictonpolice.com (print option only).

Complete registration form and drop off or mail to:

Fredericton Police Force
Attn: Vulnerable Persons Registry
311 Queen Street
Fredericton, NB
E3B 1B1

A color photograph must accompany every registration.

Please be advised that it will be the responsibility of the caregiver to inform the Fredericton Police Force of any change in status of the registrant. Annual registration is required to keep your form active. It is the responsibility of the applicant to re-submit the form. It is recommended that you re-submit on the registrant's birthday to make it easier to remember.

Leanne J. Fitch
Chief of Police